Dear Parents/Carers,

From next week, we will start with our PE after school clubs. The clubs will be outside, where possible, so please ensure that the children are dressed in warm PE clothing.

As a school, we have decided to use our Sports Premium Funding to finance our PE clubs and make them free of charge. The importance of physical activity to support with fitness, mental health and well being, is a priority to our school. We understand that COVID-19 has impacted on clubs and sporting activities but we are keen to get children active and participating in team sports.

The clubs are free and there is an expectation that the children attend all the sessions, unless they are unwell.

The clubs will have a maximum of 20 pupils per club and will be based on a first come first serve basis. We will also have a waiting list for each club.

The clubs, days and year groups are below in the table.

| Day | Year Group | Activity | Leading |
|------------|----------------|--|-------------------|
| Tuesday | Y3, Y4, Y5, Y6 | Multisport - Basketball, fencing and dodgeball | Premier Education |
| Wednesday | Y1, Y2 | FA Disney Inspired Football Skills | Miss Ryan |
| Thursday | Y1, Y2 | Multisport - Handball, fencing and dodgeball | Premier Education |
| Thursday - | Y3, Y4, Y5, Y6 | Handball/Hi 5 Netball | Miss Ryan |

To book onto the club please complete the form by clicking here.

If you can complete the form by 9.00am on Monday 10th January. We will inform parents, via text, if your child has a place at the club or they are on the waiting list.

Yours Sincerely,

Mrs L. Vollans
